ing on consideration of zoning
CABLE TV QUERY

A motion by Selectman Ivaron you will find an advertisement for a Hearing before the Planning Board of proposed ZONING BY-LAW changes. These changes are a complete revision of the Zoning By-Laws including a new section on Windpower Generating Systems and mandatory amendments to our Flood Plain regulation. Following the Planning Board's Public Hearing, the amendments will be brought to the Town for a vote at a SPECIAL TOWN MEETING to be held on MONDAY, MARCH 29, 1982. After much discussion, it was decided to present these at a Special Town Meeting for several reasons. Due to the magnitude of the material to be presented and acted upon, an entire evening will undoubtedly be consumed on this one article. Should it have been included in the Annual Town Meeting Warrant, it would still have taken a complete session, but you as voters would have no assurances as to when it would be presented for a vote. In the past several years, attendance at the Annual Town Meeting after the first night has dropped off drastically. At times there are far less than 150 voters present acting upon the articles. I, personally, would like to see a full house. This has only occurred at very important Special Town Meetings such as those held for new school issues. Having a Special Town Meeting is in no way an attempt to "slide" an important issue through, but indeed the exact opposite. We want your full and complete participation and are fully aware that a second or third night at the Annual Town Meeting will reap a very poor attendance, hence a poor representation of the Town acting upon Zoning changes. Please mark your calendars now for the SPECIAL TOWN MEETING on the 29th of MARCH.

Letter to the Editor

THIRD MEETING-HOUSE (GRANGE HALL)

The Selectmen are to be commended for their interest in the rescue of the Grange Hall.

The first and second meeting-houses were built in the River Road/Hammondtown Cemetery area. After the second was damaged by a tornado, the old timers moved the granite, straightened the nails and located the Third Meeting-House nearer the action of the growing township. Our town was incorporated in this meeting-house, which Charlie Mendell said was our most valuable heritage still standing.

So, the Selectmen deserve the input and advice of the Historical Society, the Historical Commission and especially the concerned taxpayers of Mattapoisett. Good communication and consensus will give us a better final decision.

Personally, I would like to see the taxpayers vote for a new roof, and then rent the building...that it may not become a financial burden. But, better yet, sell the building with restrictions on the exterior...to safeguard the National Register status.

The Police station is a separate problem. And when the taxpayers decide the time has come for a new location, I think the police deserve better than what has been suggested lately.

Better and more parking is needed. And a more gradual and visible entry and exit onto Route 6 is very necessary. The sharp corners and tight congestion at the traffic light would prove very dangerous I'm afraid.

The police would be better served with a tight efficient building with a level or ramped entry for the handicapped; and enough land to allow for gradual, visible and safe entry and exits of cruisers, and future garage space for police cars and ambulance.

Hopefully, many people with good ideas will attend the open meeting on February 1st, Monday evening, at 7:00 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Old Hammondtown School

All sixth grade students from Old Hammondtown School recently toured "The Search for Alexander" exhibit at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston.

The exhibit displayed outstanding metalwork, sculpture and jewelry made in Macedonia dating to the fourth century B.C.

Students were given guided tours through the exhibit which will be touring selected major cities in the country. This firsthand experience related to their study of ancient Greek history and revealed the continued fascination of the story of Alexander "The Great".

When students were questioned on what impressed them the most, the majority said the pure gold sarcophagus which had contained the cremated remains believed to be those of King Philip II, father of Alexander, and the solid gold wreath of oak leaves and

American Legion

The Florence Eastman Post #280 of Mattapoisett has been in existence since 1921.

The main objectives of the Post are two-fold: first to assist veterans of all wars including the Vietnam War and second to be active in supporting the local community.

The American Legion, on the National level, is very instrumental in lobbying for Veterans' Benefits in Washington. On the local level the American Legion is most active in assisting Veterans with their individual problems. Although this is an ongoing program in Mattapoisett, the Post, by design, does not publicize their accomplishments because they are usually of a personal nature to the Veteran being assisted.

George White is in charge of Veteran affairs for the Legion Post; he also holds the same title for the Town of Mattapoisett. Therefore, the American Legion and the Town work very closely in this area.

The Legion is active in the local community activities too. For years the Florence Eastman Post has sponsored the Memorial Day and Veterans' Day Parade. In addition, the Post sponsors a Boy Scout Troop and sends several boys to Boys State each year. The Legion Hall is made available for various community activities.

Several items of general interest from the Post's December 81 meeting are presented as follows:

1. A letter from Katherine Kozicki, Principal of Center School, was read into the record. She extended the school's appreciation for the Legion's support of the School's Christmas Parties. For years the Post has donated Dixie Ice Cream cups for the children to have during their classroom Christmas parties.

2. By unanimous decision the Post membership voted to make all World War I Veterans Life Members of the Post. Letters have been sent to our World War I Veterans: Mr. Theodore Bradley, Mr. Kenneth M. Wood, Sr. and Mr. Merrill Walker notifying them of this action. The Legion will have a ceremony to make the actual awards. The Post has two other WW I Veterans who have Life Memberships: Mrs. Grace DeCosta and Mr. Manuel Roza.

3. The Post approved a motion to purchase four American flags for each of the Mattapoisett Girl Scout troops.

4. The Post set the following calendar dates:

BIRD SEED SALE

As we struggle to keep warm this winter, the tiny wild birds that fight for survival in these sub-zero temperatures, and breath-freezing winds warrant not only our admiration, but our continuing help. These birds burn a lot of energy to keep warm, and bird seed and suet supply them with the vital oils that are needed.

Deadline for ordering seed for the Children's Museum's 3rd Bird Seed Sale is January 30th. See last week's Presto for details. Seed and feeders can be picked up between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 6th. Seed can be ordered by phoning 993-3361, or stop by the Museum at 100 Old Westport Road to fill out an order blank. Proceeds from our Annual Bird Seed Sales help the Museum to offer educational programs for children throughout the year. The 4th sale will be April 3rd, so stock up now for the cold months of February and March. Thank you for your support of the Children's Museum and happy bird feeding!

O.R.R. GRAD RETURNS TO ADDRESS JUNIOR HIGH STUDENTS.

She's good at both - so good, in fact, that the Massachusetts Cable Commission last year evaluated her as the number one local programmer in the state.

Recently Ms. Marland was invited to the junior high to speak to Team 7 East and selected members of the Uplift program. Her messages to the young people were many. She spoke about the phenomenal growth of the cable television industry in the past few years, the implications of future growth, the impact of television upon the lives of people (especially local programming), and the role of women in this emerging industry.

As part of her presentation, Ms. Marland showed the students several short programs which she produced including segments from "Kids Want to Know" and "Kids News"; as well as coverage of local sports and civic events. Included in her presentation was a taped series of vignettes which explored her thoughts as a little girl in anticipation of what she wanted to do as an adult. This tape was made when she was a student.

Though she grew up in Dartmouth, Ms. Marland told the students that she chose to go to Old Rochester because of the superior educational opportunities offered there. After high school she pursued a college career at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. From there she went on to do graduate work at both Tufts University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She is currently the production manager for the Cape Cod Cablevision in South Yarmouth.

Poet at SMU

Nikki Giovanni, often called "The Princess of Black Poetry", will lecture at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Sunday, February 7, at 3 p.m. in the SMU auditorium.

Her appearance is sponsored by the Black Student Union.

"She is a personal poet whose thoughts touch you, whose words move you," according to a brochure about Nikki. "A product of the 60's, her genuine care for people comes through in her poetry. Her works are the collected experiences of being Black, being a woman, a mother, a person. They are life set to verse. She is at times a prophet, at times a witness; and at times she is just looking at the world with the wonder and awe of a child."

Giovanni has made several recordings and her column, "One Woman's Voice", is syndicated by the Anderson-Moberg Syndicate of The New York Times.

Tickets go on sale January 28 at the SMU campus center ticket office.

TRU-TEST PAINTS

PAINTING HELP SPOKEN HERE.

BY Bonnie Blaire

TRU-TEST COLOR CONSULTANT

Dear Bonnie:

Our daughter is just beginning to take pride in her own room. I would like to encourage her by making it as attractive as possible. Unfortunately it is furnished with hand-me-downs of the "Early-Mother-in-law" vintage. Where do I start?

Signed Daughter-in-law

Dear Daughter-in-law:

If your hand-me-downs are serviceable they are worth reclaiming with a good coat of paint. It will conceal a multitude of scars and scratches. By painting them all the same color you create the unity they lack now.

For a girl's room white is a good choice. Paint the walls a pretty pastel blue, pink, yellow or apricot. Paint woodwork and furniture white. Or, paint the walls white and paint woodwork and furniture a pastel or bright accent color.

For furniture painting we suggest TRU-TEST Quick Drying Gloss Enamel, an easy to maintain wipe-off finish. Choose Semi-Gloss Enamel for woodwork and Interior Flat for walls. All are available in matching colors in the TRU-TEST system of 820 Custom Colors. They are all lead free for child safety.

EXHIBITION: "PORTUGAL AND THE EAST THROUGH EMBROIDERY"

"Portugal and the East Through Embroidery", a major exhibition of antique textiles from the Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga in Lisbon, will be on view at the New Bedford Whaling Museum (Old Dartmouth Historical Society), 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford, from February 13 through March 28. Organized by the International Exhibitions Foundation, Washington, D.C., the exhibition presents 20 rare embroidered coverlets, or "colchas", that have never before been shown in North America. The Whaling Museum is honored to have been chosen as one of two American Museums to present this major exhibition.

Extremely rare today, these colorful coverlets have only been exhibited twice before, once in Rome, once in London. The limited American tour will bring them to Washington, D.C. and to New Bedford, where visitors will have an unusual opportunity to become familiar with one of the most interesting art forms to emerge from Portugal's presence in the East.

His Excellency, Vasco Futscher Pereira, the Ambassador of Portugal, is honorary patron of the exhibition, which is supported by a grant from The Gulbenkian Foundation. Additional assistance has been provided by The Cork Institute, the Banco Totta e Acores and the Banco Portugues do Atlantico.

The selection has been made by Dra. Maria Alice Beaumont, Director of the Lisbon Museum, who has chosen 20 especially rare pieces dating from the 16th to the 18th centuries. The colorful embroideries were

The earlier Indo-Portuguese quilts, bearing Oriental and European designs, were believed to have been made in Portugal by artisans imported from the Orient as well as by Portuguese craftsmen living in colonies established in the East, notably Goa. These coverlets demonstrate a variety of designs, Hospice is coordinated by St. Luke's Visiting Nurse Service, volunteers work closely with the visiting nurse assigned to the patient's case, as well as other members of the Hospice team including physicians, nurses, social workers, clergy, and home health aides.

Although St. Luke's Visiting Nurse Service has attended dying patients for many years, Hospice, as a formal program mostly for cancer patients, is only a little more than one year old. In that time twenty-two Greater New Bedford families have been cared for through Hospice. An increasing number of referrals has heightened the need for Hospice services; consequently, St. Luke's Hospital is now recruiting new volunteers to begin an intensive 40 hour training program beginning this February. The training program examines topics such as Death and Dying, Creative Listening, and Sensitivity in Patient Care.

Once a volunteer is assigned to a patient, the program becomes highly individualistic, geared for the particular needs of the patient and family. Volunteers become an essential link since they spend more time with the patient other than the patient's family. It may involve reading to the patient or simply listening; helping with transporting the patient for medical treatments; or to stay with the patient while the family attends to business or visits with friends.

Sensitivity, dependability, an ability to share, and a desire to help are qualities which make Hospice volunteers special. They are a caring and supportive presence in the midst of trying times to help the patient and family live life in the best possible way, even when faced with death.

To apply as a Hospice volunteer, phone JoAnn Beaulieu at St. Luke's Visiting Nurse Service, 997-1515, ext. 343.

FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR ARTISTS

Applications for the $5,000 Massachusetts Artists Fellowships in painting, printmaking/drawing, sculpture, crafts and photography are now available at the Artists Foundation. Any artist who is a resident of Massachusetts, over 18 years of age, and not enrolled as a student is eligible to apply to the Artists Fellowship Program. Applications must be returned to the Foundation office by 5 p.m. Monday, March 1, 1982. Several fellowships will be awarded in each field. Applications for the writing categories, film, video, choreography, and music competition will be available in August, 1982.

Applicants must submit samples of their work demonstrating a high level of accomplishment. Painters, printmakers, sculptors and craftspeople submit up to 10 slides of recent work. Photographers may submit either 10 photographic prints or 10 slides. Panels of out-of-state artists in each field will select the fellowship recipients solely on the basis of the quality of the work submitted. Project proposals are not required of either applicants or recipients.

The Artists Fellowship Program is one of several programs administered by the Artists Foundation, Inc., a public, non-profit agency that assists individual artists in Massachusetts. The Artists Fellowship Program is supported by funds from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities, a state agency.

Applications may be obtained by writing: The Artists Foundation, 110 Broad Street, Boston, MA. 02110; or calling 482-8100.
